

WELCOME

A warm welcome to our Inn, and our wine and drinks list.

Please find over the following pages our selection of drinks which will hopefully enhance the enjoyment of your visit.

Our wine list has emerged from many joyful times to include an eclectic range of favourites at all price brackets, offering at least something from all major wine-producing countries.

Food and wine pairing is very subjective and we accept that often people enjoy their favourite wines with whatever they are eating.

We also know, however, that when paired correctly the union of food and wine can raise your dining experience as a whole.

So for honest, un-pompous advice please ask us for a recommendation when ordering your food and we will be pleased to help you as best as we can.

We also offer a wide range of spirits, soft drinks, beers and lagers for your enjoyment, which are too numerous to list in full. However, on the back page please find listed some of those of which we are most proud.

Please ask a member of staff, should you require any help, advice or wish to offer feedback.
